Resources for groceries and supplies:

Some grocery stores and retailers have opened their doors exclusively to seniors and those with underlying health conditions one hour in the morning, before letting in the general public. However, please be sure to read the above article from the CDPH (California Department of Public Health). (see link above) before deciding if you want to be near others in public places such as stores. You are responsible for your own safety. Delivery might be a better option for you.

Target: Target will reserve the first hour of shopping each Wednesday at stores nationwide for vulnerable guests – including elderly and those with underlying health concerns.

Costco- Will open special hours for those 60 and up effective Monday through Friday, 8-9 a.m.

Vons: Will open to 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. for "vulnerable shoppers," including senior citizens and other at-risk populations

Walmart: Walmart will offer hour-long senior shopping every Tuesday from March 24 through April 28, for customers aged 60 and older. This will start one hour before the store opens, so check location hours before going.

Ralphs - will dedicate 7:00 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. daily at all locations, solely for the shopping needs of senior citizens.
